Special Manufacturing Alert

Volume #008-02-03

Badger Metal Tech, Inc.

Jan-Feb 2003

This issue is a special alert issue to all of our manufacturing industry.

On Jan 28th our President Bush gave his State of the Union Address.

Although I support most of his policies, I do not see him or anyone in our government or the mass media really understanding what is causing our economy's lack of recovery.

I trust that this issue will not only make the recipient aware of the economic

Anyone concerned about our economy and the realization of the threat that China poses, should scroll down to the section below. This information is always updated to include new articles and topics relative to this problem. Click on the China button or underlined link

In addition to this very important information, we also are announcing our New Updated Web page that has been split into two separate sections: One for Die Casting, and one for Draw Form / Blanking. We have added convenient buttons for navigation purposes. Quickly you can jump from Metallife to Thermalife information for your specific needs. The information is specific to each type of die tooling. Hot Work for Die Casting and Forging. Cold Work for Draw Form / Blanking.

This takes you to our new home page.

We have made it extremely simple to not only get information but also to supply us with information or submit a quote request on line.

We will include in our next issue the results of our testing of Uddeholm's relatively new Dievar Hot Work Steel when used in conjunction with Thermalife.

If you have any questions or comments about our newsletter or wish to participate in this cause, we are always glad to hear
