If you have a lot of graphics experience, you can use one of the many offered graphics converters, OR you do it in one click with PhotoResize400.

How do you know if you are really on the site that you think your are? There are dangerous sites that mimic your bank, credit card, investment institution, etc.. We'll cover this in a future newsletter.

Here's how:

Need to view a 2D or 3D CAD drawing but do not own the expensive CAD software? We'll show you how in our June 2008 newsletter.

Just drag the photo files or folder that you want resized to this program icon.
